Library Rules of Conduct

Policy Statement

The Library is committed to preserving a welcoming and pleasant environment for library visitors to read, to learn, to discover new ideas and to participate in library programs and activities. The Library is responsible for establishing Rules of Conduct to protect the rights and safety of Library visitors, volunteers, and staff, and for preserving and protecting the Library's materials, equipment, facilities, and grounds. In addition to enabling the Library to fulfill its service mission, these Rules of Conduct also serve to ensure that all visitors are treated equally and fairly and to stipulate consequences for violating the Rules of Conduct, which may include denial or limitation of access to library services.
